General Comment

Dear EBSA,

The money I set aside for retirement is mine to handle WITHOUT any more regulations or interference from the federal government. We citizens of the United States are taxed and regulated enough! If I need to withdraw from my IRA I do not need you to tell me how, when and why I need to get my money. I am living on a fixed income which you morons have no idea what that is like to go through. So what I propose is for you and the rest of your cronies in Washington to leave me and every U.S. citizen out of our personal business.

Sincerely,

Chris Covert
